4| yelling at the children and they yelled back at her, but the mother did not hit them. The reporting
5| party was concerned because the children are homeschooled and they lack socialization skills and
6| interactions with other children their age, and because the mother believes she is being stalked, so the 7| children are homeschooled instead of attending regular schools. The mother's mental health had 8| gotten worse and she was not enrolling the children into school and is homeschooling them and
9| believed that Paul Pelosi wants her to have his child. The referral was taken for information only as 10| there was no indication of risk to the children because the mother was meeting their basic needs.
